

Malinda Darwechter Dies Sunday Night - 90 Year Old Lady is taken by Death

Mrs. Malinda Archbold Darwachter, well known Decatur lady, who would have been 91 years old next month, died at 10:10 o'clock Sunday (hard to read, might be Saturday) night at her home, 714 Short street. She had been ill for several months and critical for the past week. A lifelong resident of Adams county, she was born in Root township Dec. 20, 1859, the daughter of Jeremiah and Lavina Paulison-Archbold. She was married to William Darwachter Sept. 14, 1892, her husband preceding her in death.

She was a member of the First Christian church and the American Legion auxiliary, in which organization she was highly active until a few months ago. Surviving are one son, Elmer Darwachter of Decatur, and one sister, Mrs. Peter Amspaugh of Decatur. Three brothers and two sisters are deceased. Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Black funeral home, the Rev. Jonas Berkey officiating. Burial will be in the Reynolds cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 o'clock this evening.
