

THE DEATH ANGEL - Visits Home of Wm. Draper and Takes There from the Wife and Mother - Was Ill Three Years - From Tuberculosis of the Spine - Husband and Three Daughters Survive

The home of William Draper, of Short street, was made very sad Monday evening at 4:15 o'clock, when the angel of death visited the family circle and took there from the spirit of the wife and mother, Mrs. Draper had been ill the past three years, her death being caused from tuberculosis of the spine, and her death though not unexpected, causes much sorrow among her many friends and acquaintances, and especially to the husband and three children of her immediate family.

Mrs. Draper was born October 3, 1885, a daughter of Uriah and Malinda Grim, making her age thirty-five years last September. She was born in Adams county, and had resided here all her life. She was married to Mr. Draper in 1905 at Hoagland, and they had resided here the past several years. The three children are Florence, Stella and Helen. Her father, Uriah Grim, now lives at Williams, and there are two brothers and two sisters: William and Charles Grim, at Williams; Mrs. Alfred Deam, Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Albert Numbers, Ossian. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home and 2:30 o'clock from the Methodist church, the Rev. Tinkham officiating. Burial will be at the Reynolds cemetery north of the city.
