

DIED LAST NIGHT - Miss Clara Mangold Died at Fort Wayne After a Long Decline - Body Brought Here For Funeral Tuesday – Deceased, a Daughter of the Late Jacob Mangold

Miss Clara Mangold, who has made her home in Fort Wayne for several years, died there last evening at 6:45 o'clock. She had been in failing health for more than a year and for a week her condition has been most serious. Miss Mangold was in her forty-ninth year. She was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Mangold and was born in this city. The greater part of her life was spent here and in this county.

The parents are both deceased and but two sisters survive. They are Miss Catherine Mangold, of this city, who has been at the bedside of her sister during her serious illness; and Sophia, wife of Earl Taylor, of Portland, Oregon. The body was brought to this city and taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Kirsch on N. Second Street, until tomorrow afternoon, when funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock from the M. E. Church. The Rev. Thornburg will officiate. Burial will be in the Reynolds cemetery. Friends and relatives may call to see the body at the Kirsch home Tuesday from 9 to 2 o'clock.

[NOTE: Clara Ellen Mangold, 8 Sep 1888 - 26 Aug 1917; daughter of Jacob & Sophia Mangold]
