

After an illness of over a year death came to Mrs. William B. Reynolds Sunday morning. She was a sufferer from dropsy, and several times during the recent months she was considered in a dying condition, however, rallying each time. Her husband and four children are left to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held Tuesday morning from the Methodist church, Rev. Hudson officiating. Interment at Reynolds Cemetery.

[NOTE: Reynolds, Mary L.; 1836 - 1901, wife of William B. Reynolds]