

FARM WOMAN DIES SUDDENLY - Mrs. Nettie Spangler Fatally Stricken With Heart Trouble Today

Mrs. Nettie Spangler, 58, wife of Jacob Edward Spangler, died suddenly at 4:30 o'clock, this morning, Monday, July 22, 1929, at her home seven miles northwest of Decatur. Mrs. Spangler had attended church as usual yesterday. She arose early this morning and got breakfast over, with the expectation of preparing dinner for threshers. It was while she was in the midst of these duties that she was fatally stricken.

Mrs. Nettie Spangler was the daughter of Howard and Samantha Shackely and was born April 3, 1871, in Union township, Adams County, where the major portion of her life was spent. She united in marriage, January 18, 1900, with Jacob Edward Spangler. Three children, born of this union, preceded the mother in death. Surviving, besides the husband, are the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Effie Bowers, of near Peterson; Mrs. Bertha Johnston, of Fort Wayne; Miss Jennie Shackley, of Kenton, Ohio; and Samuel Shackley, of Bryan, Ohio. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock (standard time) at the residence and at 2 o'clock at the Mt. Pleasant M. E. church. The Rev. Glen Bryan, of Wells County, will officiate and burial will be made in the Reynolds cemetery.
