

The original probate files of Hendricks County, some from as early as 1823, are very fragile and are in storage. You are encouraged to use these digital images instead of seeking the originals as they are as complete, and more readable in many cases, than the originals.

JOHN ALDERSON
ESTATE

1825

HENDRICKS COUNTY, INDIANA

Know all men by these presents That we John Carter and David Carter acknowledge ourselves to owe and be indebted to the state of Indiana in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars for the payment of which to be well and truly ~~to~~ made we bind our heirs and assigns as witnesses our hands and seals This 21st day of October AD 1825

The Condition of the above obligation is such That whereas Letters of administration have this day issued from the Clerks office in the County of Hendricks and state of Indiana on the Estate of John Alderson deceased of said County Now should the said John Carter faithfully discharge the duty of administrator on said estate ~~then the above~~ as the law directs then the above obligation to be void and of none effect otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law
