January Term 1868

In the Estate of James P. Alexander
Deceased

The undersigned Administrator of the Estate of said Alexander submits the following report -

I am chargeable as shown by my report made September Term 1865 - with a Balance of $1758.55

And I am chargeable on said Inventory with various claims which are desperate or never paid off but which I cannot estimate until final settlement -

I am entitled to the following Credits -

Amount paid into Court for Distribution Jan 1866,	$ 150.00
Amount paid into Court for Distribution Jan 1867	100.00
Amount paid in for distri- bution with this report	100.00
Paid L M Campbell	5.00
Total Credits reported	$ 355.00 = 355.00
Balance of indebtedness	$ 1403.55

And said Administrator further shows that a large part of the claims on the Inventory are desperate - others cannot be made by law but may be collected without suit in time, that the claims against the Estate are now reduced to about £800, which he thinks he can collect of the claims on the Inventory of the Estate be continued, which he asks may be done.
