Eliza Armstrong, Administratrix of the said estate shows to the Court that the only personal property of the decedent was an Organ of the probable value of $50.⁰⁰ but the same has not yet been appraised. She says that it would be a useless expenditure to advertise and sell said Organ at public sale, but that she believes its true value can be obtained at private sale without notice.

Wherefore she asks for an order to sell said Organ at private sale without notice, for not less than the appraised value.

Milton Armstrong et al.

Come now the plaintiff by Hogate and Clark, her attorneys and files proof of publication in words and figures following, to-wit: (here inserts from which it appears to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendants, Allen Armstrong, Wm Armstrong and Sallie Hale have been duly notified of the pendency of this cause, by four successive weekly publications in the Hendricks County Republican, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in Hendricks County, and State of Indiana, the last of which publications was more than thirty days before the second day of the present term of this Court, that day on which said notice was made returnable by writing on the complaint, signed by plain-tiff's attorneys.

And said defendants failing to appear are each now severally three times called and come not but herein wholly make default.

And now the Plaintiff suggests the infancy of the defendant Thos Armstrong and shows to the Court the Summons issued to the Sheriff of Hendricks County and State of Indiana, and the Sheriff's return thereon in words and figures following to wit: (here insert), from which the Court finds that said defendant Thos Armstrong was duly served with Summons in this Cause more than ten days before the first day of the present term of this Court. And now the Court appoints —

Edw E Gully an attorney at this bar as guardian ad litem for said infant defendant.

And now comes said and accepts said Appointment and to-wit: (here insert)

And now this cause is submitted to the Court for trial finding, judgment and de-cret. without the intervention of a jury.
And the Court having heard the evidence and been sufficiently advised in the premises finds that the allegations in the complaint are true and that the real estate in the complaint described ought to be sold to procure funds to pay the debts of said estate.

And now comes said Administrator and files an appraisement of said real estate made by Joel Simmons and C. Kennedy.

Two competent free holders residing in Hendricks County and State of Indiana, which appraisement is in words and figures following to wit: (here insert) and in which said real estate is appraised at. \$248 $\frac{70}{100}$

And said Administrator also files her bond in the sum of five hundred dollars with Geo. P. Sherrard as her surety, which bond is approved.

And now it is ordered, that said Administrator sell, as the property of the estate of Izzie Armstrong, the following described real estate in Hendricks County and State of Indiana, to wit: a part of the West half of the North East quarter of Section Thirty Three (33) in Township Seventeen (17) North and Range one West described as follows: Beginning nine (9) chains and ninety five (95) links East of North half mile of said section: Thence South 16 Chains and 66 links: Thence South 58 $\frac{1}{2}$ degrees East 18 links: Thence South 70 degrees East three (3) chains and fifty (50)
