} Affidavit for Continuance

Comes now James Patterson and upon oath says that he is the administrator of the Estate of James Ballard deceased against whom the above entitled Cause is pending. That he has been notified by the heirs of said Estate to contest said claim and that he does not believe said claim to just due or owing said claimant.

That he cannot safely go into the trial of said Cause at this Term of Court for the reason that valuable evidence for said Estate cannot be given at this term for the following reasons. That in the year 1888 said claimant made application for a provision which is on file with the Probate Commissioner in which said claimant sworn to the following facts in substance. That he said claimant had been with the deceased James Ballard since 1879 and was working for his board and clothing. That he was physically unable to do manual labor and that said Ballard had the worst End of the Contract

Which affidavit has been on file with the papers in said Cause in Washington D.C. and all of the facts stated in said affidavit included the time for which Claimant seeks to recover for work and labor performed as shown in his Claim against said Estate. That said affiant Catterson has for over a month been diligently trying to get said affidavit, and has had during that time had a lawyer <sup>claim agent, and agent in</sup> in said Wash ington D.C. hunting for said affidavit. That said affidavit is necessary for the proper defense of said Claim and he believes can be procured if said Cause is con stituted as prayed for. And that he cannot prove the falsity of the statements made by Claimant in his Claim by any other evidence so readily procured.

That this affidavit is not made for delay but to further the ends of justice
