Comes now Ebenezer Tomlinson Executor of the last Will and Testament of said decedent, and presents and files the affidavit of George T. Weichler, publisher of the Plainfield Progress, a weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Hendricks and State of Indiana from which it appears that notice of the pendency of this suit has been given for three weeks in said paper, the last of which publications was more than 30 days before the first day of the present term of this Court. And now the said Executor files his own affidavit from which it appears that three notices of the pendency of the petition herein has been posted in Guilford township in said County, the township wherein the Real Estate herein is situate, which notices were posted on the 14th day of June 1881.

And now on motion the heirs of age herein to-wit: Julius J. Banks and Mahlon Banks are each three times called, but come not and herein wholly make default. And now on motion, an attorney at this bar is appointed Guardian ad litem for the infants Eliza Banks, Louvina Banks and Jacob Banks. And now comes said Guardian and as such files his answer.

And this cause being at issue the issues joined are submitted to the Court for hearing, finding and decree and after hearing the evidence and inspecting the proof the Court doth say and find that the said Caroline Banks did the owner of the Real Estate described in the petition leaving as her heirs at law and only heirs Julius J. Banks, Mahlon Banks, Eliza Banks, Louvina Banks and Jacob Banks: the Court further finds that the personal estate of said decedent ~~to~~ which has come into the hands of the Executor amount to $11.31 and that the debts so far as they can be ascertained amount to about $126.00 not including expense of Administration. The Court further finds that the Real Estate described in the petition is liable for the payment of the debts of said deceased, but that the last piece described ought first be sold to pay said debts, if sufficient can be thus realized.

And now comes said Executor and file an inventory and appraisement of said Real Estate from which it appears that the same was appraised by Amos Alderson and Simpson Jones two reputable householders of the neighborhood at the sum of $100.00

And now comes said Executor and in pursuance to the order of the Court, files his bond herein in the penal sum of $300.00 with Benj. F. North as his surety which bond is conditioned for the faithful discharge of the duties of said Executor in and about the sale of said land. Said bond is examined and approved by the Court and his approval endorsed thereon.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the Executor proceed to sell at private sale without notice the following described Real Estate in Hendricks County and State of Indiana to-wit: Lot No. 7. in Block No. 19 in Center's 2nd Addition to the Town of Plainfield.

And said Executor is ordered to sell said Real Estate for $\frac{1}{3}$ cash in hand and the balance on the 25th day of Dec. 1881.
