The State of Indiana,

Affidavit of Widow that Estate is not Worth over $500.

Hendricks County, ss:

I, Caroline Banks Widow of Henry Banks deceased, swear that all the property, real and personal, of Henry Banks deceased, exclusive of incumbrance thereon, is not worth over Five Hundred Dollars, as I believe; and I ask that the same be appraised.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 30 day of Sept., 1878

Caroline Banks
Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas John Morgan County Notary Public

State of Indiana, Hendricks County, ss:

To Jacob Chandler and Ambrose Jessup of said County, greeting:

Whereas, Caroline Banks Widow and relict of Henry Banks deceased, having filed her affidavit to the effect that all of the property, both personal and real, of the said decedent, will not amount to the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, exclusive of incumbrances, and ask that the property be appraised.

Therefore, I have appointed Jacob Chandler to act in concert with Ambrose Jessup selected by the Widow, both disinterested householders of said County, as appraisers of said property, both real and personal.

You will, therefore, proceed to inventory and appraise the property of said decedent, and return the same to this office when completed, together with this precept.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed the Seal of said Court, at Danville on the 9th day of October, 1878.

J. M. Green
