John P. Hadley Executor of said Estate represents to the Court that all the personal property belonging to said Estate, subject to sale - consists of household goods most of which is old & been long in use & unsaleable on the general market & about one half of which was held in partnership by the decedent with Emma R. Berryman & the whole of which as will & does appear by the Inventory on file in said Estate ~~was~~ is appraised in item from No. 1 to No. 19 inclusive at the aggregate sum of $37.25.

To save the expense of a public sale said Executor believes it will be to the interest of said Estate to sell all of said property at private sale without notice for not less than the appraised value & he asks an

In the estate of } Final Report Mildred Berneau dec'd.

Comes the clerk of the Court and files the affidavit of O. H. Smith publisher of the Hendricks County Union a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Danville in said county, from which affidavit it appears that notice of the filing of a final report herein had been given in said newspaper for two weeks successively; the first of which publications was on the 5th day of January 1882 and the last on the 12th day of January 1882, And now the clerk files his own affidavit from which it appears that a like notice had been posted at the Court House door of said county on the 29th day of December 1881, And now said final report is submitted to the court for examination, hearing and confirmation and after examining the same the Court finds that said report was filed in the Clerk's office on the 29th day of December 1881, and by an endorsement thereon was set for hearing on the 28th day of January 1882. The Court further finds that the Executor is chargeable with the ~~sum of~~ sum of $723.91, and entitled to credits in the sum of $723.91, that said report is correct, that the same ought to be confirmed and that the executor ought to be discharged.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that said report be and the same is hereby in all things approved and
