On this 18th day of January 1862, personally came before me John Warner a Notary Public in and for the County and State aforesaid Rev William S. Harker to me well known and before and says that sometime in the year 1860, during his Ministerial labors, on North Salem Circuit in the County of Hendricks in the State of Indiana that he took up a subscription for building a church and that he visited Mr William Blanton (or Blandon) for that purpose and also a visit to him said Blanton in his affliction as he was at that time sick - and he informed this affiant that he would give twenty dollars for that purpose & if he got well he would do more but that he would do that much any how and said he "Brother Harker you write it or put it down for me" which I did then & then as his request and further said no,

Dear Sir

I received your favor stating the death of our friend William Blanton and that you would like for me to send you some money now so far from sending the estate money I think there will be one share I wish you would inquire into the matter find out from Mrs Blanton what they have done with the cattle I left with them and write immediately. I will then come out and attend to my business
exceedingly oblige

S. S. Hadley

Your Friend
