When letters were issued to me it was supposed that a considerable amount of other property could be reached, but I have not been able to find any other property on which to administer.

The funeral expenses and expenses of the last sickness, and the costs of administering have all been paid by me, and receipts taken therefor, but I retain them to settle with the widow, who promised to refund these sums to me.

And having fully settled said estate
I now ask the Court to discharge me from any further duties and liabilities on account of said trust.
