term thereof A.D. 1841 The report of Jeremiah Hadley administrator of the Estate of James Campbell Deceased

Who would respectfully report to your honor that he has collected since the last term of said court thirty Dollars which he now pays in to court but that he cannot make final settlement of said estate at this time because he cannot collect the balance of the money by process of law he has endeavored to collect upon execution but the officer could not sell property for the want of bidders ~~but~~ he expects to be able to make settlement at the next term all of which is respectfully submitted

Such is the condition of the estate of the deceased, and the amount of debt outstanding against it so far as the same have come to the hands or knowledge of your memorialist

From the above it clearly appears, that the whole property of the deceased, which has been made assets in the hands of your memorialist to be administered, is insufficient to satisfy the debts and demands outstanding against it. Your memorialist therefore prays that he may be allowed to settle the said estate as insolvent, in conformity with the statute in such case made and provided, that the creditors of said estate of said estate may be notified accordingly, and that he may have such other and further relief as may be consistent with justice and equity

STATE OF INDIANA, HENDRICKS COUNTY.
Hendricks Probate Court to August term, 1841.
Jeremiah Hadley Administrator.
The creditors of James Campbell's estate. } Complaint of Insolvency.

THE creditors of the estate of James Campbell late of the county of Hendricks deceased, are hereby notified that at the May term, 1841, of our said court, the said administrator filed his bill complaining of the insolvency of said estate, and praying generally for relief, and further that unless they notify the said administrator of the existence and extent of their respective claims, by filing the same, or a statement of the nature, description and date of the contract or assumpsit upon which the same may be founded, in the office of the clerk of our said court, previous to the final distribution of the assets of the said estate, their claims will be postponed in favor of the claims of more diligent creditors.

Attest,
June 11-6w J. M. GREGG, Clerk.

Personally appeared in open court Simon T. Hadley and after being sworn on oath saith that the ^{of the insolvency of the estate of James Campbell deceased} appended notice has been published six weeks in succession in the Indiana Journal, commencing on the 12th day of July 1841 and ending the
