J. L. Parker Clerk

State of Indiana } In the Probate Court of Hendricks County } Hendricks County, Novr. Term 1846.
On the estate of Henry Caplinger dec'd. -

Clayton Caplinger Administrator of said estate respectfully shews to the Court that as such Administrator, he stands charged as per inventory of the personal estate of said decedent now on file in this Court, with the sum of One hundred and twenty eight dollars and seventy nine cents, that said decedent was not at the time of his decease the owner of any other property of any description whatever other than what is contained in said inventory -

Said Administrator claims the following credit to wit: By amount of property delivered to Mary Caplinger, the widow of the said deceased, at the appraised value, a receipt for which is endorsed on said inventory, One hundred and twenty eight dollars and seventy nine cents, being the whole amount of ~~said~~ the property belonging to said estate.

Said Administrator therefore respectfully asks the Court that he be discharged from any further duties as such Administrator, upon the payment of the costs which have accrued herein.
Novr. 10th 1846.

Respectfully Submitted
Clayton Caplinger
Administrator

Clayton Caplinger being sworn in open Court says that the matters and things contained in the above statement or exhibit are true, and further saith not. -
