

The original probate files of Hendricks County, some from as early as 1823, are very fragile and are in storage. You are encouraged to use these digital images instead of seeking the originals as they are as complete, and more readable in many cases, than the originals.

AARON CARTER
ESTATE

1834

HENDRICKS COUNTY, INDIANA

Affidavit

State of Indiana Hendrick County to wit personally appeared before me David Vestal a justice of the peace in and for the County aforesaid the said David H. Cox administrator of the estate of Aaron Carter deceased and Jeremiah Hadley and Gadlock Smith appraisers of said estate and after being sworn the said Jeremiah Hadley and Gadlock Smith say that the above inventory and appraisement as assigned by them is a just and true inventory and valuation of the goods chattels and effects of the said Aaron Carter to the best of their judgment and the said John Hadley and David H. Cox says that the above is a true inventory of the personal estate of the said Aaron Carter so far as the same has come to their hands to be administered

Know all men by these presents that we John Hadley David Gore Hierom Green Jonathan Hall of Hendricks County, are held and firmly bound unto the state of Indiana in the sum of Six hundred dollars, for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, and done, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, Sealed with our seals, and dated this 11th day of August A.D. 1834.

The condition of the above obligation is such, that if the above bound John Hadley David Gore will truly and faithfully perform the duties and trusts committed to them as administrators of the estate of Aaron Carter deceased, according to law, then the above obligation is to be void and of none effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue in law.
