Richard Riggan administrator of the estate of James Carly deceased, reports to the court the following claim which was appraised to him as a part of the assets of said estate, and he shows to the court that any attempt to collect the same will be unavailing and against the interest of the estate, the said claim being as follows, one promissory note made to said administrator by William Hedges and by William J. Gandedown as surety, and he further shows that at the time said note was taken and approved by him, the said surety was solvent and responsible but that since that time and before the maturity of said note, the said surety William J. Gandedown became wholly insolvent and fled the country, that said note was in the sum of $48.50, and that the same was dated Nov 13th 1874, and he asks to be discharged from the collection ~~thereof~~ the remaining $14.50 still due thereon.
