State of Indiana) ss. In the Hendricks Probate Court Hendricks County) Feby. Term 1852

To the Honorable Abraham Blanchard, sole Judge of the said Hendricks Probate Court now in Session,

The Petition of William Dorrough a minor within the age of twenty-one years to wit of the age of fourteen years and four months and nine days, sheweth unto your Honor that he has no father or mother now living, and that whilst he was a minor within the age of fourteen years, upon the application and petition of some person professing to be your petitioner's friend, One James Morille was appointed a Guardian for the person & estate of your petitioner and did take upon himself such appointment and has against the will of your petitioner bound him out to one Enoch Thornely who resides in Boone County Indiana until your petitioner shall arrive at the age of twenty one years remote from your petitioner's friends; and your petitioner has been placed under the care & control of the said Thornely, and owing to the want of the care and attention of the said Thornely your petitioner has had his feet badly frozen, and he has otherwise suffered greatly. Wherefore, ^{he} asks the Honorable Court to permit him to select his own Guardian to take care of his person and estate until he shall die or arrive at legal age, according to the force of the Statute in such cases provided, and he will ever pray &c
