On the 13th day of June A.D. 1852 personally appeared before me, B. H. Higgins a Notary Public in and for the County of Lucas State of Ohio Wm. J. Hall of the County & State aforesaid formerly a resident of the county of Hendricks State of Indiana and being duly sworn according to law deposes and says

That on or about the first day of September A.D. 1852. he left in the hands of James Sharp one of the Justices of the Peace in Liberty Township Hendricks County Indiana a promissory note executed by one Hardwick, (a name other person the name he does not now distinctly recollect) as will be seen by the said Justice's Record calling for the sum of thirty three dollars payable on the 25th day of December 1852.

He further deposes that ~~that~~ ^{on or about} some time in the month of October A.D. 1852. he met with one Ennis Dodd (then a resident of Hendricks county Indiana) in this county & State. Whereupon he (said Hall) stated to the said Dodd the fact of his leaving the above note in the hands of the said Justice for collection & also that he had not as yet received the said money from said Justice nor any part thereof. He further deposes & says that at the ~~same~~ mentioned time in October 52 he gave to the said Dodd a receipt which he received from the above mentioned Justice at the time he delivered said note to him for collection when due. And thereupon the said Dodd promised to receive said money from the Justice & bring it to him at this place or to mail it to him.

And he further deposes & says that he has never received the above sum of ninety six dollars nor any part thereof from either the Justice or John Dodd.
He further deposes & says that he verily believes that the said Dodd has received the sum of ninety dollars from the said Justice. I have for him (said Dodd) use He therefore claims said amount of $96 from the person of said Justice.
