IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF JACOB M. DUZAN, DECEASED.

Comes now Alfred Lineinger, administrator of said estate, and presents and files his report of the sale of the real-estate of said decedent, which report is in the words and figures following, to wit:- (H.I.)

And said administrator also presents and files his affidavit of posting notices of said sale with a copy of said notice attached, which affidavit and notice is in the words and figures following to wit:- (H.I.)

Whereby it appears, that said administrator posted notices of the time and place and terms of said sale in five public places in Hendricks County, three of which were posted in Middle township, the township in which said land was situated, for more than four weeks before the time fixed for said sale, which was on the 22nd. day of February, 1896.

And said administrator also presents and files the affidavit of Earl C. Weaver, Editor and Publisher of the Pittsboro Sun, a weekly newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in Pittsboro, Hendricks County, Indiana, whereby it appears that notice of the time and place of said sale was duly published for four weeks successively in said Pittsboro Sun, the first of which was on said 17 day of January and the last on the 7 day of February, 1896, and said notice, fixing the day of said sale, on the 22 day of February 1896, and providing that if no satisfactory bid should be received on said day, that said sale should be continued from day to day until said land was sold, by which affidavits it appears that due notice of said sale was given for more than four weeks before the day set for said sale, pursuant to the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided.

Which affidavit and notice of Earl C. Weaver is in the words and figures following to wit:- (H.I.)

And the Court after examining said report and said affidavits and notice and after examining the appraisement of said real estate filed in said cause, says, and finds, that said sale was made in all things according to the order of the Court.

That due notice was given of said sale as provided by law.

That the same was sold at private sale on the 4th. day of ¹⁸⁹⁶ March to Miles Hessian for the sum of $3000.00, that being more than the full appraised value of said land.

That said Miles Hessian paid in cash down for said land, the sum of $1000.00, and executed his notes for the remainder in two equal installments payable in 12 and 18 months from date, as the order of the Court required, waiving valuation and appraisement laws, and bearing 6 per cent interest from date until paid.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court, that said sale of said land to the said Miles Hessian be and is now in all things ^{confirmed} ~~affirmed~~ and approved.

And it is further ordered and adjudged by the Court, that upon the execution of a mortgage upon said real estate, to wit:-

The West half of the South East quarter of section 19, township 17, North, in Range One East, containing 80 acres more or less, by said purchaser to said administrator to secure the deferred payments on said real estate said administrator, Alfred Lineinger is hereby directed, authorized and empowered to execute a deed of conveyance ~~of~~ of said land to said purchaser, and that he bring said deed into Court for its approval and for the further order of this Court.

And now comes said administrator and shows to the Court his deed conveying said land to said purchaser Miles Hessian and the Court having examined said deed and being fully advised in the premises, ~~and~~ approves the same and writes his approval thereon in these words, "Examined and approved in open Court, this the 4th. day of March, 1893".

John V. Hadley, Judge.

And said administrator is hereby authorized and empowered to deliver said deed to said purchaser as the evidence of his title. All of which is ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court.

And now said administrator files his bond to sell said real estate, which bond is in the words and figures following, to wit:- (H.I.)

answers of said defendant$

And the Court having examined said ~~petition~~^{petition} and answers of said defendant$ and having heard the evidence and being fully advised in ~~the~~ premises, finds, that the matters and things alleged in said petition are true. That said defendants are all of the heirs at law of said Jacob ~~X~~^W. Duzan, deceased, and that they each are over the age of 21 years, and that said land ought to be sold at private sale.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court, that said land, to wit:-
