In the guardianship

of Fda A Paussett

Barry W William minors

heirs of Isaac Paussett deed

Charles W Paussett guardian of said minors respectfully shows & repeats to the Court that his wards have no estate in possession, real or personal - That no estate whatever has come to the possession or knowledge of said guardian except such as is now in possession & charged with the life estate of Unity Paussett - That the object of taking letters of guardianship for said minors was to facilitate the sale of real estate to pay debt of their ancestor Isaac Paussett deceased which has now been fully accomplished - That no estate will come to the possession of said minors or their guardian until after the death of their grandmother the said Unity - Paussett & there is no need in the opinion of said guardian to continue said guardianship - & he has paid all costs thereof as will appear byoucher filed from the Clerk of this Court - That he has received nothing whatever as such guardian - & he hereby tender his resignation & asks that he be fully & finally discharged from his trust. Charles W Fausset—as described & sworn to before me
