To the Honorable the judge of the Superior Common Pleas Court.

The undersigned guardian of Nancy Ann Flathen would report that on the 15th of November 1850 he received of John Flathen in cash the sum of fifty three dollars & thirty three ($53.33) which he then put out at six per cent interest, and which still remains at interest, and at the same time rec^d of said Flathen property appraised to ten dollars, which is all and the only estate of his ward either in possession or expectancy. That his said ward is still a minor, and is sufficiently provided for. ~~And further~~ Respectfully submitted
