George J. Hankins et al.

George J. Hankins for his separate answer herein alleges that he admits the allegations of the petition herein in so far as the same shows the necessity of the sale of the real estate of the decedent Julia A. Hankins, and he alleges that by an election filed by him in said estate, he as the surviving husband of said decedent is the owner of an undivided one third of the lands as described in said petition.

He therefore now consents to the sale of all of said real estate by said administrator - but demands that one third of the purchase price of said land belong to him and that the said interest therein as the one third owner thereof be declared a lien upon the funds in the hands of said administrator, derived from the sale of said lands.
