In the Matter of the Estate

of Maximillion M. Herbster, deceased.

Margaret E. Herbster shows to the Court that on the 24th. day of December 1896 Fred Herbster was appointed Administrator of said estate, and acted as such administrator until the 11th. day of May 1897 when he was removed and affiant appointed Administratrix of said estate.

That said Fred Herbster never made a report and accounting as Administrator of said estate. That he is at this time in the volunteer service of the UNITED STATES, and affiant can not say when he will again be at home and able to make a report in said matter.

That during the time he so acted as administrator of said estate, affiant was his bondsmen, and in order to a full settlement of said estate, she as such bondsmen tenders this accounting on behalf of said Fred Herbster, together with her own final report as administratrix of said estate.

Credits.

There is charged on said Inventory, household goods etc that were turned over to affiant and accounted for by her on her inventory for which he should have credit ---$ 105.00
The notes of John L. Rutledge, placed on said inventory were in fact in the possession of Parker, Crabb & Co. and are held by them as collateral security for a note for $500.00 made by decedent in August 1896 and payable in one year. One of said note has been collected and applied as a credit of said principal note for, $237.00 as per agreement with decedent in his life time. Said Fred Herbster should have credit for appraised value of said notes as shown on his inventory in the sum of " 948.00
1 Paid to J. E. Robertson on mortgage as per voucher filed " 1070.00
2 Paid to J. W. Scott for hauling wood to Lizton " 12.25

Affiant says that the drug store owned by decedent at the time of his death, had for some time prior thereto been conducted by decedent and said Fred Herbster as a partnership in the name of M.M. Herbster and son and that after the death of said decedent said Fred Herbster continued to conduct said business as a partner and did not place the same on his inventory as administrator of said estate. But when affiant was appointed Administratrix of said estate said Fred turned said store over to her and relinquished all claims thereto, as partner.

That no bills for goods or expenses for said store made after the death of said decedent and prior to appointment of affiant have been paid out of the assets of said estate.

That affiant, as administratrix of said estate has accounted for all goods and accounts in said store at the time of her appointment.

That affiant has no means of accounting for the business of said store during the interval between the death of said decedent and appointment of affiant, nor could said Fred Herbster account accurately therefor if he were present, and she therefore does not ask for the repayment of the amount over paid by said Fred nor for compensation for his services as administrator, but she asks the approval of this report.

Margaret E. Herbster, Administratrix of Said Estate, respectfully reports and Shows to the Court that pursuant to the order of this Court she gave notice by publication in the Pittsboro Sun,
a weekly news paper of general circulation
printed and published in Pittsboro, in Hendricks County and State of Indiana, for more than ten days before the day fixed for the sale, that she would, on the day of 1897
offer for sale at private sale, to the highest and best bidder, and for not less than the appraised value thereof, the Stock of Drugs, & notions belonging to the estate of said decedent, and situated and being in the Store Room, in Pittsboro Ind. occupied by said decedent, at and prior to his death, that said sale would take place at said Store Room
and if a sale was not made on said date said sale would be continued from day to day until a sale was made.

That on said date she offered said goods for sale as advertised and received no bid therefor
and said sale was continued from day to day.

She also shows the Court that on the inventory
filed in this court are the following articles.

Herbster, Administratrix of said estate and shows to the Court that a part of the property of said estate is a drug store in the town of Pittsboro Indiana, which stock of drugs she has caused to be appraised item by item and that as shown by her inventory this day filed said stock of drugs is appraised at s-----

That at the time of the death of said decedent he was actively conducting said business and since his death his heirs have kept said stock of drugs on sale and said place of business open to the public for the transaction of business.

That said stock of drugs can not be sold at public sale, and that to close said store until a purchaser can be found for the same will result in loosing the good will of the trade, which is valuable, and will be a great help in assisting to sell said stock of goods if not lost by closing said store.

This petitioner therefore asks the Court to order that said stock of drugs be sold at private sale, and that until such time as a purchaser can be found for said stock as a whole that said store be conducted by petitioner and said stock be sold at retail as the trade may demand.
