

The original probate files of Hendricks County, some from as early as 1823, are very fragile and are in storage. You are encouraged to use these digital images instead of seeking the originals as they are as complete, and more readable in many cases, than the originals.

Exhibit of Settlement

Filed in open court
August 12th 1840
S. M. Perry, etc.

Know all men by these presents that we John Collins and Jacob Holsclaw, of the County of Hendricks and State of Indiana are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana in the sum of Two Hundred dollars Lawful Money of the United States for the payment of which well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves our heirs, executors, and administrators jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this 11th day of October 1838

The condition of the above obligation is such that if the above bound John Collins will truly and faithfully discharge the duties and trusts committed to him as Administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Holsclaw, deceased, according to law, and will truly and promptly deliver over to his Successor, to be appointed by the probate Court of said County, should any such successor ever hereafter be appointed, all such estate, goods, chattels & and assets, and assign to such Successor all such rights and credits, as shall of right belong to such successor upon reasonable demand made thereof, then the above obligation to be null and void; otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law
