County of Hendricks, }^{ss}

In the Hendricks Circuit Court March Term 1889,

To the Hon Joshua S Adams Judge of said Court;

In the matter of the Guardian of Chase Hunt;

John F Martin duly appointed guardian of Chase Hunt-minor child of Alfred Hunt; would respectfully tender this his resignation of said guardianship. He would show to the Court that at the time he was appointed as such guardian the said wards father ^{Alfred Hunt} lived near Clayton in Hendricks County and in the same neighborhood where this guardian lives and that it was then convenient for him to act as such. That said Alfred Hunt has since moved his place of residence to a farm adjoining the town of Danville said County near eleven miles from where this guardian lives, and that said word when not in school lives with his said father and that it is not convenient for him said Martin to act as such guardian any longer, and that it is the mutual desire of him and the said word that he be relieved ~~as~~ from said trust ~~and~~ that some one who lives nearer to the said word and his family may be appointed as such guardian.

Wherefore said Martin asks that his resignation be accepted and he asks for an order of Court for him to pay and deliver to the Clerk of this Court all moneys, notes, bank stock and assets of all kinds that may be in his possession as such guardian, and he asks that after a full and final accounting and report herein, to be finally discharged from said trust.
