Estate of David H. Lenthie, deceased, and makes know to the Court that said decedent died intestate.

That said decedent left no wife or children surviving him: that his nearest of kin are Mother, Brothers and Sisters.

And he says that a Monument ought to be erected at his grave of the value of not less than Seventy five nor more than One hundred twenty five Dollars.
That a monument of that cost would be in keeping with his standing in Society.

And he asks the Court to grant him an Order authorizing him to purchase a Monument of the value of not less than $75⁰⁰ nor more than $125⁰⁰.
