Final Report

The undersigned Administrator of said estate, respectfully represents and reports to the court, that he took letters herein for the purpose of endeavoring to procure back pay, and bounty supposed to be due said decedent as a soldier in the army of the United States during the war of the Rebellion of 1860, that he has since his said appointment made applications for such back pay, bounty and clothing but has wholly failed to realize any thing whatever thereon and has now no hope or prospect of receiving anything therefore, that he has advanced all expenses out of his own money and ~~now~~ has paid the costs and charges of this administration out of his own private money, ~~and~~ And he further reports that he has received no property, or money belonging to said Estate wherefore he now prays the Court to approve this report and order his discharge from all further liability herein.
