To the Honorable the Judge of the Hennepin Common Pleas Court, at the February term thereof 1856.

Charles Larsh and James Hoadley Executors of the last will and testament of Jonathan Larsh, would report, that on the 23^d of June 1854, the executors the last will & testament of the decedent to be duly proved, and took letters testamentary on said estate: that in pursuance of the provisions of said Will, they immediately took an inventory of all the personal property and the same was duly appraised to be worth (including a note with interest) $1079.62 Amount of property taking by widow 763.67

Leaving in their hands property appraised at $315.95 Which they sold on the 26 day of July 1854 on a credit of twelve months from that day for the sum of $334.35

That they have collected and paid over to the Clerk of this Court for the payment of claims on file which are admitted to be justly due and owing by said estate the sum of $167.00

That they have not collected all the money due them for the property sold by them, and for that reason they ask a continuation of the estate until the next term, at which they will probably be able to settle the estate under the will.

February 8th 1856.

Subscribed & sworn to Feb 8th 56.
