Personally appeared before me John Irons Clerk, of the Court of Common Pleas of said County, on the 30th day of June 1855, Amos S. Mills of said County, who upon being duly sworn deposes and says that Nancy Master, widow of James Master deceased, departed this life at her late residence in said County, on or about the 9th of this month, intestate, leaving property to be administered upon amounting in value to the probable sum of seventy five dollars, and that there is no one legally appointed to look after the same,

Account:

I am chargeable as per inventory of personal Estate with.

$109.50

Interest accrued on sale notes

1.25

In all the sum of $110.75

I claim credit for difference between appraisements and sales, by sales less than appraisements of

$3.78

I also claim the following credits for amounts paid out by me as per vouchers filed herewith - to wit

No. 1.	By	Amount paid James W. Martin, Shroud	$3.65

And said Administrator would represent to the Court that said, decedent, was seized of no real estate and that the above amount charged against said Administrator is all of the personal estate of said decedent which has come to the knowledge of

Said Administrator, except a claim of probably eighty dollars which he believes cannot be legally collected but from which ^{he} hopes to realize something.

And said Administrator represents to the Court that the claims against said estate will probably amount to one hundred and forty dollars. And that the property of the estate will not pay the debts of the estate. Wherefore he asks for an order to settle it as insolvent.
