Hendricks Probate Court, Nov. Term,
A. D. 1833.

David Matlock, Administrator of James Matlock, deceased, vs
The creditors of the said James Matlock. } on complaint of insolvency.

THE said David Matlock having filed his memorial in this Court, showing the condition of the said estate, & complaining that the personal property is insufficient to pay the debts and demands outstanding against it, (no real Estate) it is therefore ordered, that the filing and pendency of the said complaint be made known to the creditors of the said James Matlock, deceased, by a publication of this order for six weeks successively in the Indiana Journal, a weekly newspaper published in Indianapolis, in the county of Marion; and that they be informed, that unless they notify the said Administrator of the existence and extent of their respective claims, by filing the same, or a Statement of the nature, date, and description of the contract or assumpsit, upon which the same may be founded, in the office of the Clerk of this Court, previous to the final distribution of the assets of the Estate of the said decedent, such claims will be postponed in favor of the claims of more diligent Creditors. This house is now undergoing considerable repair, and will be open for the reception of Travellers and Boarders, on and after the 1st inst. Its contiguity to the Court and Legislative business of the state and county, together with its pleasant and healthy situation, renders it a desirable stopping place for strangers visiting the Seat of Government, either on business or pleasure.

The proprietors, in tendering their services to a liberal and enlightened public, will only say, that good order shall regulate their proceedings, and that their time and attention will be exclusively devoted to make those comfortable who may favor them with their patronage.
