State of Indiana } In the Hendricks Probate Court Hendricks County } February Term 1842

In the Estate of David M Daniel late of said County deceased Job Osborn Administrator of said Estate would most respectfully report to the Honorable the Judge of said Court that it is out of his power to settle up said Estate at this time because it is out of the power of the Justice of the Peace before whom judgments have been taken in favour of said Estate to collect the monies belonging to the same Execution after Execution <sup>has</sup> been duly issued and returned no money made for want of bidders. In fact the undersigned is clearly of the opinion that under the now existing laws of the State it is a denial of justice in all cases at law where an Administrator is Plaintiff unless the money be voluntarily paid by such debtor, the Administrator not having by law the power to purchase in any such property for the use of said estate, wherefore he prays that the aforesaid <sup>estate</sup> be continued until the <sup>next</sup> Term of this Court for the causes aforesaid

Know all men by these presents that we Job Osborn and Samuel McLogue both of the County of Hendricks and State of Indiana are held and firmly bound unto said State in the penal sum of One thousand Dollars lawful money of the United States for the payment of which well and truly to be made and done we bind ourselves our heirs Executors & Administrators Jointly and severally firmly by these presents Sealed with our seals and dated this the sixth day of September A.D. 1838

The condition of the above obligation is this, That Whereas the above bound Job Osborn has this day obtained Letters of Administration to administer upon all and singular the goods chattels rights, credits moneys and effects of David McDaniel late of said County, deceased, Now if the said Job Osborn shall and will truly and faithfully perform the duties and trusts committed to him as Administrator of the Estate aforesaid, and will truly and promptly deliver and pay over to his successor to be appointed by the probate Court, if any should ever be appointed of such Estate, goods chattels and assets and assign to the said successor of such assets, and of the rights and credits which of right may belong to such Successor, upon reasonable demand, then this obligation to be void else to remain in full force and virtue

In the Hendricks Probate Court Nov. term 1845
The estate of David McDaniel

Job Osborn Admr. of said estate Respectfully reports in this estate, to the Honorable court, that he is not prepared to settle up said estate at this time for the following reasons. viz. Because there are a portion of the debts coming to said estate not yet collected, to wit. a judgment against David Stockman for twenty dollars or upwards, and a judgment against Jackson Griffith for about two dollars & fifty cents, execution after execution has been issued on said said judgments and returned no sale for want of bidders; there are also some claims belonging to said estate on the widow's & portion of the heirs which can be arranged without collecting the same; wherefore he prays

David M. Daniels Estate,

Estad, Job Osborn Administrator of said Estate, would most respectfully report to the Court that <sup>it</sup> is out of his power to settle up said Estate at this time because upon judgments in favour of said Estate against individuals execution after execution has been duly issued by the proper Justices of the Peace and returned by the proper officers no money made for want of bidders, and what money he has received he has paid over to S. J. Hadley, the Guardian of the minor heirs of <sup>sd</sup> Estate and has taken his receipt therefor wherefore he prays a continuance of said Estate until the next Term of this Court, and he will settle up said Estate as soon as he can collect the judgments in favour of said Estate against individuals &c Isol. Osborn Administrator of said Estate would state to the Honorable James McAllen Soll Judge of said Court that he has collected all of the monies and debts coming to said estate and has paid the same over to S. J. Hadley the Guardian of said Estate except a note and an account on Isal Osborn now deceased amounting to about fifteen dollars and other claims amounting to a small sum of money which are all reduced to judgments, and replevied under the act of last session of the Legislature but the stays will be out now in a few days and then the money will be collected forthwith except the claims against the estate of Isal Osborn now deceased which cannot be collected for one year after the death of the said Isal. Wherefore for the causes aforesaid your petitioner asks your Honor to continue said estate, &c

David McDannels Estate

Job Osborn Administrator of said estate Reports to the Honorable Jos, Wickliffe Judge of said estate Court That it is impossible for him to settle up said estate at this Term Because, owing to the act of the last session of the Legislature giving eight months stay of execution upon all Judgments rendered before Justices of the Peace and twelve months stay on all Judgments orders or decrees in the Superior Court it has been completely out of his power to collect the debts due to said estate, at this time Wherefore he prays that said estate be continued to the next Term for the purpose of collecting the debts due said estate your Petitioner will also say to your Honor that owing to the pressure of hard times now visiting every part of this once happy and prosperous community, that there is no money of consequence in the country for the people to pay their just debts and therefore for the reasons aforesaid he most respectfully asks your Honor to continue said estate &c
