Whitson Nelson executor of the last will and testament of ^{the Estate} William C. Nelson Deceased, (would represent to the said Circuit Court, that the personal Estate of said Estate, amounting to $274⁵⁰/₁₀₀ has been entirely exhausted in the payment of debts, and that there is still existing against said Estate a note and account due Wm C. Nelson amounting to, probably eight hundred dollars; and also a claim to James H Haridson, surviving partner of said deceased, amounting to about Six hundred and 70 dollars. which leaves near $1500 of indebtedness, as near as your petitioners can now ascertain after all the personal estate has been exhausted.

He further represents that the decedent died the owner ^{in fee simple} of the following Real Estate To wit, the undivided one half interest debts, I caused said land described in said Order and decree ^{to be advertised} for Private Sale, until the 2^d day of May 1874. and if not then sold at Private Sale, it was provided in said advertisements, that they would on that day be offered at Public Sale; which notice was published for four weeks successively in "The Weekly Indianian" a Weekly Newspaper printed and published in said Hendricks County; a copy of which notice, together with the affidavit of the Executor and publisher of said paper is herewith filed Marked Exhibit A and made part of this Report, and I also caused like notices of said Sale, to be posted up, in & in five Public places in said County, three of which were so posted in the township of Lincoln the township in which said Real Estate is Situate, and one was so posted at the Court House door of said County in the town of Danville Indiana, and all of said Notices were so posted ^{my} Four weeks prior to said day of Sale.

And being unable by the said 3^d day of May, to find a purchaser for ~~an~~^{all} portion of said Real Estate at its appraised value — Affidavits are herewith filed of the posting of said Notices marked B & C

Comes now Whitson Nelson Executor of the Estate of William C Nelson deceased, and files his Report and petition showing amongst other things, that upon settlement with James T Davison, Surviving partner of the firm of Nelson & Davison, there ~~was found~~ of which firm the said deceased was a member, there was found to be due from the Estate of, said William C Nelson deceased, to said Davison individually the sum of Eight hundred and eighty eight dollars ($888²⁸) and 28 Cents, and that there is on hand a remnant of goods belonging to said firm appraised at 342 dollars and 59 cents. Which the said Davison agrees to take at their appraised value on his said claim against said Estate, and said Executor and said Surviving partner Davison also file their agreement and a list of notes and accounts due said firm amounting to $1436 dollars, and 11 cents, and the said Davison agrees to take said Estate's half interest in said Notes and Accounts, without any Recourse on said Estate, and said Estate's interest in said Remnant of good in full of his the said Davison's Claim against said Estate, and said Davison files his Inventory and full Statement in the premises, and the said Executor files Exhibits A Containing a list of said Notes and Accounts so taken - and the Court being sufficiently advised in the premises, ~~has~~ ratifies and Confirms in every Particular the Report of said Executor, and his transfer of the interest of said Estate in said goods and said Notes and Accounts embraced in said accompanying list to the said James T. Davison, without
