files his sworn petition to settle said estate as an insolvent estate, showing that the claims ^{costs} against said estate amount to the sum of about \$, 368 $\frac{15}{100}$ and that the assets amount to only \$, 244, leaving a deficiency in the sum of about \$, 124 $\frac{15}{100}$. And the Court after being fully advised in the premises finds that the averments of said petition are true and that said estate ought to be settled as insolvent - and it is therefore ordered that said estate be settled as insolvent -

State of Indiana County of Hendricks In the Hendricks Circuit Court - June Term 1883

In the matter of the estate of Catharine Newman deceased

Comes now James M. Will administrator of the estate of Catharine Newman deceased and shows to the Court - that there are secured claims against the said estate which run on the lands of said decedent and which are preferred claims - in the amount of about $1,203.00

That there was no personal property we came into his hands. That said decedent left about nine acres of land in Hendricks County which this administrator has sold by legal proceedings in this Court and he realized and collected therefrom the sum of $1,244, and that this is all of the assets of said estate as far as has come to our petitioner's knowledge.

That the first of said claims consists of a judgment taken Dec 22nd 1876 before J. M. Will J.P. by Henry Dietrich against said Catharine Newman for the sum of $176.00 and costs and there is now due principal interest & cost $115.00; that the second said claim consists of a judgment taken Oct 25th 1877 before Charles Edwards J.P.

by Amos C. Weaver against said California Woman for the sum of $53⁵²/₁₀₀ and then is due there on $87⁹⁴/₁₀₀. That there are other claims against said estate in the probably sum of $92¹⁶/₁₀₀, and that the costs of administration will probably amount to $17¹⁵/₁₀₀ making a total of claims & and costs of about $368¹⁵/₁₀₀ showing a deficiency of about $131¹⁵/₁₀₀.
Wherefore he asks for an order to settle said estate as an insolvent estate.

rods and 8 links, thence East to the line dividing said quarter North and South, thence ^{South} 33 rods and 8 links, thence West to the place of beginning, supposed to contain Nine acres more or less; That said order provided that said land should be sold at private sale without any public notice being given of the time and place for said sale; said land to be sold for not less than the full appraised value thereof; that pursuant to said order he made diligent effort to sell the same, and that on the 19th day of October 1882, Rachel Beard did bid there for the sum of $242⁰⁰, and she being the highest and best bidder, and that sum being more than the full appraised value there of, the said land was then and there sold to her. And said purchaser paid down the sum of $121⁰⁰, and executed her note with for the residue payable in 12 months from day of sale, with interest from date of sale at 8 percent, ~~interest~~ ^{interest} running, and to valuation or appraisement hereof; and the undersigned shored to the Court said notes and refers to the appraisement, and he prays that the sale may be confirmed.
