Know all men by these presents that we, ~~the~~ Ellen O'Connor and Patrick Shields

all inhabitants of the State of Indiana, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Indiana, in the penal sum of One thousand dollars, for the payment of which, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents sealed with our seals and dated, this 11th day of October A. D. 1857. Whereas the above named and bounden Ellen O'Connor has been duly appointed by the Clerk Probate Court of the County of Hendricks in the State of Indiana, Administratrix of the estate of William O'Connor late of said county, deceased, and is about to receive letters of administration as such Administratrix, which have been duly granted to her by said Clerk.

Now therefore the condition of the above obligation, is to the effect following to-wit: that the said Ellen O'Connor shall diligently and faithfully execute the duties and trusts committed to her as such Administratrix, and that she will obey all orders and decrees of the Probate Court of said county of Hendricks made pursuant to law, touching the administration of the estate entrusted to her then and in that case said obligation shall be null and void, otherwise remain in full force and virtue in law.
