Abraham Petty
vs.
Simon Hornaday Administrator of the Estate of Isaac Petty

Abraham Petty the plaintiff Complains of Simon Hornaday Administrator of Isaac Petty's estate the defendant and says that on the 25th day of December 1859 Isaac Petty, the deceased was indebted to the plaintiff in the sum of Four Hundred and Seventy five Dollars for <sup>services</sup> care and attention, <sup>and taking care of</sup> ~~and~~ providing for the said decedent from October 1856 to 25th December 1859 at his request, and being so indebted the ~~said decedent~~ promised to pay the said sum of money, but the same has never been paid, and the defendant as Administrator of the said Isaac Petty's estate owes the same, wherefore he demands judgment for the sum of Four Hundred and Seventy five Dollars Abraham Petty

Come now the parties by Counsel, and the Court being duly advised in the premises finds for the plaintiff and assessed his damages at Three hundred Dollars, and the defendant files motion and reasons for new trial and the Court overrules said motion to which the defendant excepts. It is therefore considered that the plaintiff recover of the defendant said sum of three hundred dollars as and for his damages in the premises by the Court aforesaid assessed and also his Costs of this suit

On motion ordered that this judgment be paid out

1st Accident & Surprise which ordinary prudence could not have guarded against.

2nd The damages found for the plff is excessive

3<sup>d</sup> Newly discovered evidence, material for the defendant which he could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced at the trial.
