Answered

State of Indiana. Hendricks County.
In the estate of } Circuit Court
Samuel Phillips } March Term 1881
decd.

Jonathan F. Phillips one of the executors of the last will and testament of said decedent says that said decedent died the owner of $288\frac{1}{2}$ acres of Real Estate in Hendricks County State of Indiana worth about the sum of \$10,000.⁰⁰ and that he left a personal estate of about \$6,000.⁰⁰ as will be shown by his Inventory on file; that the indebtedness of said estate that has come to the knowledge of the executors does not exceed the sum of \$300.⁰⁰ and that said estate is entirely solvent.

He shows to the court that he believes it to be entirely respectful to the memory of the deceased and in keeping with the condition in life of said decedent and the estate of said decedent to erect a tombstone at his grave, to cost not to exceed $50.⁰⁰.

Wherefore he asks the court for an order for the executors to erect at the head of the grave of said decedent a tombstone not to exceed the cost of $50.⁰⁰.

Phillips deceased }

Comes now the Clerk of this Court and presents and files the affidavit of A. A. Smith, Local Editor of the Henricks County Union a public weekly newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Henricks from which affidavit it appears that notice of filing a final settlement report herein had been given in said paper for two weeks, the first of which publications was on the 15th day of December 1881 and the last on the 22nd day of December 1881. And now the Clerk files the affidavit of Wm. H. Calvert from which it appears that a like notice had been posted on the Court House door of said county on the 17th day of December 1881. And now said final settlement report is submitted to the Court for examination and confirmation. And after examining the same the Court finds that said final settlement report was filed in this Court on the 10th day of December 1881, and by an endorsement thereon by the Clerk was set for hearing on the 2nd day of January 1882.

The Court further finds that said ~~administrators~~ Executors Jonathan and Lewis A. Phillips are chargeable with the sum of $2689.89 and is entitled to credits in the sum of $407.79; leaving a balance to be accounted for of $2282.10 which balance the said executors have paid into the hands of the Clerk of this Court for distribution among the heirs of said decedent. The Court further finds all the allegations of the report true and that the same ought to be confirmed.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that said final report be and the same is hereby in all things confirmed and approved, and said estate is now declared finally settled and said executors are discharged from their trust and bonds.

And now proof of heirship having been made, the Court orders the Clerk of this Court to pay out the said sum of $2282.10 in his hands for distribution as follows:
