He says he has been unable to settle the estate sooner for the reason that among the assets of said estate was an organ that he had great trouble in selling and had to have the same reappraised twice before he could affect a sale.

He says he has accounted for all the assets that have come to his hands, and paid all the debts, he asks that his report may be approved and the administrator discharged.

The Administrator represents to the Court that among the items of said estate as shown by the Inventory on file there is an organ appraised at $90<sup>00</sup> and some corn standing in the field appraised at $30<sup>00</sup> which he has been ordered to sell at private sale for not less than the full appraised value.

He says that he has made diligent effort to sell said property at the full appraised value, but he has so far been unable to do so, because no one would offer the full appraised value therefore,

He says that he believes if said property is reappraised he can sell it. And he asks an order accordingly.
