In the Hendricks Circuit Court, January Term 1885 Matter in the Estate of William T. Ragan Dec'd,

Comes now William J. Ragan and says that he is a son, and an heir of said William T. Ragan deceased, and is entitled under the law to two months interest of said Estate,

Said affiant says that the charges ^{to wit, $74.69} made by said Administrator for services as such to be performed by the report filed in said Court said Estate, are vexatious and unreasonable; that said Administrator only paid out to other parties the sum of five hundred ⁷⁵/₁₀₀ dollars and that said Estate was settled within one year or soon thereafter and that there has been but one report filed, and that there were no suits or litigated claims against said estate,

Said affiant says as he verily believes that the sum of twenty five dollars would be a reasonable compensation to said compensation Administrator for her services she rendered to said estate as Administrator thereof

Wherefore said affiant asks that said report be not confirmed for the reasons stated above.
