Deceased

An instrument of writing purporting to be the last will and Testament of Charles Reeve, deceased, late of said County, is now produced in open Court and application made by John J. Reeve for the probate thereof. And comes now William F. Hadley and being duly affirmed and upon his affirmation says: That on the 3rd day of October, 1893, he saw the said Charles Reeve sign his name to said instrument in writing, as and for his last will and Testament: and this deponent, at the same time, heard the said Charles Reeve, declare the said instrument in writing to be his last will and Testament, And that the said instrument in writing was, at the same time, at the request of said Charles Revere, and with his consent attested and subscribed, by the said William F Hadley and Cassie F Hadley in the presence of said testator, and in the presence of each other as subscribing witnesses thereto, and that the said Charles Revere was, at the time of signing and subscribing said instrument, in writing as aforesaid, of full age (that is more than twenty one years) and of sound and disposing mind and memory and not under any coercion or restraint, as the said deponent verily believes, and further deponent says not.

And the Court being sufficiently advised now finds that said instrument has been duly proven and established as the last will and test-
