Amanda E. Richardson deceased.

Comes now Mary A. Cox administratrix of said estate and files a petition to sell wheat at private sale, which petition is in the words and figures following to-wit:-

(The Clerk will here set out the petition in full except the caption)

And the Court being fully advised in the premises finds that said petition ought be granted.

It is therefore ordered by the Court that said administratrix proceed to sell at private sale the wheat belonging to the estate of said decedent after the same has been thrashed, for the highest market price, not less than the appraised value of the same. And that before the sale takes place the administratrix cause said wheatt to be ~~appraised~~ appraised, and report the sale thereof to this Court for confirmation.

In the matter of the Estate of Amanda E. Richardson deceased.

The undersigned, Mary A. Cox, Administratrix of the Estate of Amanda E. Richardson deceased, now comes and shows to the Court that the said Amanda E. Richardson departed this life intestate on the 6th day of June 1887, leaving an estate of personal property amounting to more than $700.⁰⁰ and the owner in fee simple of sixty eight acres of real estate in Hendricks County Indiana. She says that said decedent was never married and her heirs at law and only heirs are her mother, the administratrix, and her brothers and sisters, who are all in good circumstances. The administratrix represents to the Court that she believes it would be only a decent respect to the memory of the deceased, and in keeping with the size of her estate, to permit her to erect at the grave of decedent a tombstone (headstone and foot stone) to cost not to exceed the sum of fifty dollars.

And she asks an order accordingly.

Comes now Mary A.
Ex. administratrix, of said estate, by Hogate & Blew before me, in chambers, and presents a petition in writing to procure an order to erect a tombstone at the grave of said decedent, which petition is as follows: (The clerk will here set out petition in full except the caption).

And the Judge in vacation having examined said petition and being fully advised in the premises finds that the prayer of said petition ought be granted.

Now, therefore, I, Alexander C. Ayres, Judge of the 19th Judicial Circuit, and ex officio Judge of the Kentucky Circuit Court, in chambers, do order Mary A. Ex. Administratrix of the estate of Amanda E. Rich-
