Emily Carviness

The Estate of William R. Rushton
deceased.

Par 1st Emily Carviness complains of Omer V. Rushton, administrator of the estate of William R. Rushton deceased and says that on the 13th day of October 1882 said decedent by his note of that date promised to pay the plaintiff at his death the sum of Two thousand Dollars which note is in the words and figures following to-wit: "October 13 1882, I promise Emily Carviness to give her 2000 dol at my death to take care of her children with of wich she claims of my estate she has been in my family 19 years & a faithful servant & it is my wil to her from Wm R Rushton."; that said William R Rushton departed this life on the day of 1882, The claimant says said note is now due and unpaid. Therefore she demands judgment in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars and all proper relief.

Par 2nd Said Emily Carviness further complaining of Omer V. Rushton, administrator of the estate of William R. Rushton deceased says that prior to October 1882 she performed labor and service for the said William R. Rushton deceased at his special instance and request the period of nineteen years, and on the 13th day of October 1882 the said decedent in settlement for said labor and services and in consideration thereof executed and delivered to the plaintiff his written undertaking whereby he promised to give at his death to the plaintiff, the sum of Two thousand dollars, which written undertaking is in the words and figures following to-wit: "October 13 1882 I promise Emily Carviness to give her 2000 dols at my death to take care of her children with of which she claims of my estate she has been in my family 19 years & a faithfull servant & it is my wil to her from Wm R. Rushton." She further says that William R. Rushton on the day of 1882 departed this life and that said sum of Two thousand dollars is now due and wholly unpaid. Wherefore she demands judgment for Two thousand dollars and all proper relief.

Pa. v. 3rd And for a further cause of action the said Emily Carviness complains of Omer V. Rushton, administrator of the estate of William R. Rushton deceased and says; that she, the said claimant, worked for and did service and labor for the said William R. Rushton deceased at his special instance and request for nineteen years prior to October 13th 1882; that on the day and year last aforesaid the said William R. Rushton now deceased, and the plaintiff has a settlement for said work and labor so performed as aforesaid, and the amount there and there ascertained to be due to the claimant was Two Thousand Dollars; that it was then and there agreed by and between the claimant and the said William R. Rushton that he the said Rushton should leave her, by will to be thereafter made, the sum of Two Thousand Dollars, and as evidence of said settlement and agreement the said William R. Rushton, executed and delivered to the plaintiff a written undertaking in the words and figures following to-wit: "October 13. 1882 I promise Emily Leaviness to give her 2000 dols at my death to take care of her children with wich she claims of my estate, she has been in my family 19 years & a faithfull servant & it is my wil to her from Wm R. Rushton."

The claimant says that the said William R. Rushton afterwards, to-wit: on the day of 1882 died intestate in the County of St. Joseph and State of Indiana leaving an estate Real and personal of the value of Twenty thousand dollars; that the said William R. Rushton broke his promise and written undertaking and did not leave her said sum of Two Thousand dollars or any other sum by will.

Therefore she demands judgment in the sum of Two thousand Dollars, and proper relief.

Jm^r V. Rushton
Adm^r of the estate of William A. Rushton, dead,

11/15

Came upon the parties in person and by counsel, and the defendant withdraws his answer heretofore filed, and files his answer to the 4th paragraph of plain-tiff's claim, which answer is by the court overruled, and the defendant excepts, and files his answer to the plaintiff's claim; and the plaintiff files separate answers to each the second, fourth, fifth sixth, seventh and eighth paragraphs of said answer, and the court being sufficiently advised overrules the demurrers to the second, fourth, sixth and seventh paragraphs of answer, and the plaintiff excepts to said ruling, and the court sustains the demurrers to the fifth and eighth paragraphs of ^{the} answer and the defendant excepts. And now the plaintiff files her reply to the sixth and seventh paragraphs of answer and the defendant files his demurrer³ to said reply, which demurrer is by the court sustained, and the plaintiff excepts to the ruling of the court thereon, and files her reply in general denial of the defendant's answer.

And now by agreement this cause is submitted to the court for trial, and after hearing the evidence, and being sufficiently advised in the premises ^{the court} binds for the defendant.

4

It is therefore considered by the court that the plaintiff take nothing by her claim, and that the defendant recover of the plaintiff his costs herein laid out and expended taxed at dollars and cents. And now the plaintiff prays an affidavit to the Supreme Court which is granted.

The claimant Emily Carvies for a 4th and additional paragraph of complaint herein complains of Oliver V. Rushton administrator of the estate of said decedent, and says that prior to the 13th day of October 1882 she has been delivered of two bastard children of whom said William R. Rushton, ^{decd.} was the father, which fact said decedent did then and there, to wit, on said October 10, 1882 acknowledge and fully confess; that in compromise of the plaintiff's right of action in bastardy on account of said illegitimate children, and for the support of said children, said decedent promised, at his death, to give the claimant the sum of $2000, and as evidence of said promise he executed and delivered to the plaintiff his written obligation in these words and figures, to wit:
"October 10, 1882. I promise Emily Carriess to give her 2000 dols at my death to take care of her children with, of which she claims of my estate she has been in my family 19 years & a faithfull servant & it is my will to her from Wm R Rushton; that said William R. Rushton departed this ^{life} intestate on the day of 1882, leaving an estate of the value of twenty thousand dollars; that said obligation is now due and remains wholly unpaid; that the plaintiff, at the time of said compromise and the execution of said obligation, ^{was} more than twenty one years of age.

Owner B Rushton

Wm R Rushton Decd

Owner B Rushton Administrator of the Estate of William R Rushton Deceased for answer to the claim and complaint of said Emily Cariness against said Estate says

1st That he denies each and every allegation therein contained and set forth.

2 The defendant denies that his decedent William R Rushton executed the writing sued on.

3 The defendant says that said writing was executed (if at all) without any consideration whatever.

4 The defendant ^{for answer to the 2nd Paragraph of Complaint} says that his decedent William R Rushton fully paid the said Emily Cariness before his death and long before the execution of said writing sued on for all the work and labor done and all the service rendered him by her or at his request wherefore said writing was wholly without consideration and is void.

5 The defendant says the consideration for which said writing was executed was wholly illegal & immoral.

Done Aug.

for answer to the 2nd paragraph of complaint The defendant admits it to be true that the said Emily Carvines rendered service and performed work and labor for the deceased William R Rushton at divers times and dates prior to Oct. 13. 1882 but he avers that during all of said time for a period of nineteen years said Emily was a married woman and the wife of one Granville Carvines who lived with her and that said deceased William R Rushton fully paid said husband of Plaintiff and said Plaintiff with her husband's consent ^{for} all such work and labor in money and property long before said 13th day of October 1882 all of which said defendant is ready to prove. and he demands judgment ^{for cost} 7 for further answer to said 2nd paragraph of complaint The defendant admits that said Emily Carvines did perform work and labor for said William R Rushton for about 19 years prior to Oct 13-1882 but he avers that during all of said time said Emily was a married woman and the wife of one Granville Carvines which the defendant is ready to verify

8 for answer to complaint as amended The defendant admits that the writing sued on was executed by said William R Rushton but he avers that the sole consideration for and on account of which said writing was executed, was and is as follows to wit: That said Emily Carvers claimed and charged at the date of said writing Duit: Oct 13th 1882. That long before that date for a period of ten or twelve years the said William R Rushton, had begotten children by the said Emily, she not then nor at any time ever being his lawful wife and that he had theretofore promised to ^{be} ~~pay~~ ^{on account solely of said illicit intercourse and.} pay her some amount of money or devise to her and said children some part of his estate, and upon her demand and for the reasons aforesaid and for no other or different consideration whatever the said William R Rushton executed the paper sued ^{on} wherefore defendant says the same is null and void and he demands judgment for cost

State of Indiana County of Hendricks

Before me Amos S Wills a justice of the peace in and for said county, John Harrison and Alexander N Clark who being by me duly sworn, say that the annexed account in favor of Clark and Harrison, against the Estate of William R Rushton deceased, is correct that no payments have been made thereon except the credits thereon given; that there are no set offs against the same to our knowledge; that the Balance shown in said account to wit; three hundred and sixty dollars and thirty nine cents, ^{now} justly due and owing, to Clark and Harrison, all of we verily believe

Said decedent left as his only heirs at law his widow Elizabeth Rushton and Melissa E Stubblefield his only daughter and said Omer V Rushton his only son.

The said Elizabeth his widow has since died intestate leaving no heirs except said Melissa & said Omer.

Said Administrator says the above surplus of $655.08 should be divided equally between himself and said Melissa but that before he ascertained that the claim of Emily Caviness would be filed and caused so much expense he paid over to said Melissa $600.00 on distribution as shown by her receipt filed herewith, and that he has made settlement in full with said Melissa as shown by written agreement herewith filed by which he makes no claim against her to refund any part of said sum of $600. and therefore by retaining said Balance of $55.08 this estate is fully settled and said Administrator asks to be discharged.
