Salmon et al

Settlement Report of Guardian The undersigned Guardian of Jeremiah Salmon Susan Salmon and George Salmon minor heirs of the estate of Benjamin Pines deceased respectfully reports to the Court that he was appointed as such Guardian for the purpose of facilitating the settlement of the estate of one Benjamin Pines who was the Grand Father of said Wards - That said Wards are the children of said Guardian That said Benjamin Pines died in the State of Ohio - and his estate is situated and being settled in said State - That since the appointment of the undersigned as Guardian two of his Wards Court, Annie Salmon and Jeremiah Salmon have arrived at full age and sold their respective shares and interests in said Estate and themselves received the proceeds and they have executed receipts in full to said Guardian which are filed herewith as Vouchers. That the other ward George Salmon is not yet of full age but has contracted and bargained to sell his interest in said Estate and holds the note of the purchaser in his own hands to be paid upon his arrival at full age and the execution by him of proper deeds of conveyance wherefore said ward cannot be wronged or damaged and has no further need of a Guardian.

Said Guardian says he has never received any money - property or assets of any kind belonging to his wards or any one of them other than as above set out and explained wherefore he is not chargeable with any thing whatever - That he has paid the costs herein with his own means - and now resigns his trust as such Guardian of said George Salmon and asks to be finally discharged as to all of them - Respectfully Submitted Robert Salmon
