am chargeable leaves still to be accounted for $ 1900.23

And said administrator informs the court that he has over-paid two of the heirs of the estate, their distributive share of the estate which he will have rectified by the next term of this court, that there are still some notes uncollected, and that he has paid off a judgment in the Common Pleas court against the estate in favor of Sarah Sanders one of the heirs but her receipt for it is embraced in the one taken for the amount of her distributive share, And said administrator says that he believes that he has paid off all the claims against said estate except the expenses in & about the of administration of the same and expects to be ready to settle at the next term of this court,
