Final Report.

State of Indiana
County of Hancock 3

Court of Common Pleas

In vacation.

The undersigned, administrator of the estate of James Scanlan, Decd. respectfully submits to the Court of Common Pleas of said County, the following final Settlement account in said estate.

Said James Scanlan departed this life the owner of a land warrant for one hundred and twenty acres issued to him by the United States, and said Warrant descended to the heirs of said decedent who sold the same but were unable to execute a valid assignment thereof according to law, and this administrator procured letters of administration to enable him to properly assign said warrant.

That no assets whatever have come into his hands and he knows of no such assets, or of any indebtedness against said estate. That he has fully paid off and satisfied all the Costs and expenses of administration and asks to be discharged and released from any further duties on account of said trust H. S. McCormack

Adm^r

H. S. McCormack being sworn, on his oath says that the statements in the above report are true in substance and in fact as he truly believes.
