 H. E. Snyder,

DEAR SIR,—We this day shipped you the above Bill of Medicines.

Terms.—Medicines are charged to you at the Net Wholesale Prices above specified, from which no deductions are to be made, except for breakage and cost of transportation—the difference between the prices named above and Retail prices being your profit or commission for selling.

Put on the back of receipt the amount of freight you pay, that we may know if the railroad or boat charge you more than our contract.

Please inform us whenever any change occurs in the style of your firm or business.

All claims for breakage must be made when the Goods are received on back of receipt, or they will not be allowed.

When in want of Medicines, send us your orders. Do not wait till our Agents call upon you. Also direct us how to ship.

N. B. If the Medicines do not arrive in a reasonable length of time, we particularly request you to notify us of the fact.

The Railroad or Boat is responsible for the delivery of Goods in good order, and for all damages.
