Dec

Thos. C. Johnson
Executor

Settled May Term
1861

Ex B. 3. Pw 142

To the Honorable the Judge of the Hendricks Common Pleas Court
July Term 1860

Charles Spangh's
Estate.

Thomas C.

Johnson reports to the Court, that on the 11th day of July 1859, he took letters testamentary on the above named estate: that he immediately took an inventory of all the personal, and real estate: that he sold the personally on a credit of twelve months, and took notes therefor, none of which are due. He has also sold the real estate as directed by the will, and reported the same to this Court heretofore And as no money is yet due or collectable, he asks the continuance of this estate. Thomas C. Johnson

Submitted & sworn to in open court July 24. 1860.
