In the matter of the Estate of Minors heirs of David Spotts deceased

Charles Haynes guardian of said minors says that his ward Elvetha E. Spotts is a member of his family; that he has paid out large sums of money for her benefit in clothing, schooling and for music lessons, the items of which he is unable to give; that he has expended large sums in excess of the estate belonging to her which has come into his hands as guardian. And he asks the Court to allow him the sum of $106. as a credit against the assets with which he is chargeable; which he says will be but a small portion of the monies expended for her benefit.
