43 acres and 53 Rods more or less, at public auction, on the premises, on the 19th day of February, 1876, on the terms prescribed in the order, by a publication three weeks successively in the Danville Union a weekly newspaper printed and published in said County; and by posting up written notices thereof in five public places in said County, of which there were posted in Clay Township, where the land is situate, and on said day he offered said land for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, whereupon Tilghman Hadley did bid therefor the sum of Twenty one hundred and eighty one Dollars, and he being the highest and best bidder, and that sum being more than two thirds the appraisement, the same was then and there struck off and sold to him. And said purchaser paid down the sum of $109¹/₂, and executed his note, with William C. Stanley as surety, for the residue, payable twelve months after date, with ten per cent interest per annum from date. And said Administrator further shows the Court that said note has been fully paid, and that he has executed and acknowledged his deed conveying to the said Tilghman Hadley, the lands herein before described, wherefore he prays the Court to confirm the sale and approve his said deed which he brings into Court for that purpose. * William T. The petition filed is in the words and figures following to-wit (here insert petition in full)

And the Court after examining said petition ^{and hearing the proofs in support thereof} finds that the matters and things therein contained are true as therein alleged and that sale of the real estate therein described ought to be made. Whereupon said administrator files his bond with sureties to the approval of the Court in the penal sum of three thousand dollars conditioned for the faithful application of the proceeds of said sale.

It is therefore ordered that said Administrator proceed to sell said real estate at public sale ^{after giving the statutory notice} upon the following terms and conditions; $\frac{1}{2}$ cash and the residue in 12 months from day of sale, the purchaser giving his note therefor with approved security, all of which is finally ordered adjudged & decreed.
